Artemisia

THE MACKAY SONG
(our Alma Mater)

Where the Truckee's snow fed waters, drop from mountains crest,
And the meadows meet the sagebrush, by the sun caressed.
Cradled by the silver mountains 'neath the western blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater, our Nevada U.
As the miner, on the desert, prospects
ev'ry place,
So Nevada seeks the future with an upturned face.
Ev'rywhere she gathers knowledge, all that's good and true,
Gives she to her sons and daughters, of Nevada
U.
We will ever live to serve her, live to give our best,
Live to make our Alma Mater pride of all the West.
Let her praises wake the echoes, while we pledge anew,
Hearts and minds and hands and voices to Nevada U.

Jim McNabney:

In recognition of thirteen years of faithful service, the 1961 Artemisia is dedicated to you.

IN DEDICATION . . .

We dedicate this book to Jim McNabney in recognition of thirteen years of service to the students and faculty of the University of Nevada.

In 1948, Mr. McNabney took the position of Assistant Graduate Manager which he held for two and one half years.

In 1951 he became Graduate Manager and has held this position for ten years. Some of his duties include management of the A.S.U.N. Bookstore from hiring employees to checking inventory, supervising all A.S.U.N. expenditures and assisting in preparation of all the budgets. He extends his supervision to include helping the Artemisia, Sagebrush, and Wolf Tip Publications, and acts as financial advisor to the Finance Control and Publications Boards, both of which he is a member.

To him we owe our thanks and gratitude!

In Memoriam

AUTUMN

Honorable Grant Sawyer
GOVERNOR
STATE OF NEVADA

I welcome this opportunity to send greetings to my friends on the faculty and to the students at the University of Nevada.

This has been a period of new growth, new enthusiasm, a new emphasis. This change is reflected in our only institution of higher learning. We are witnessing significant changes—the addition of handsome, well-equipped buildings, a healthy increase in faculty and in student enrollment, and most important, a new enthusiasm for learning. The fine new buildings are tangible evidence of this fresh vigor and zeal. They are symbols of the growing respect for scholarship at the University which is certain to bring it greater eminence than ever in its eighty-seven year history.

You students now studying at the University of Nevada are fortunate indeed for never has there been an atmosphere so conducive to learning as today.

For our nation's sake, I am glad this is so. Threats from abroad have not diminished and will not diminish. We are engaged not only in a race for military supremacy, but in a contest for the mind of man, a contest whose outcome will be felt in every corner of the globe. This battle of ideas and ideals is being fought through books and will be won only by serious study and scholarly attainment. Knowing this you must be more determined than any generation which has come before to study—to increase your knowledge of the liberal arts on which our democratic concepts are founded and of the sciences which will increasingly shape our destiny.

I have great faith in you young people at the University. I know that you are fully aware of the responsibility that is yours as students, and I am very proud of you for accepting the challenge seriously and confidently.

My warmest congratulations to those of you who will be graduating this year, and my best wishes to you undergraduates for continued successes!

Governor of Nevada

The most important task of a state university such as the University of Nevada in these days is to grow—to grow in strength and resources to meet the needs of an expanding student population, to provide the kinds of educational programs which will enable its graduates to undertake successfully the challenge of today's and tomorrow's world, to advance the cause of human knowledge and human betterment through research, basic and applied—in sum, to play its full and proper part, in the truest sense of a university, as an intellectual, scientific, and cultural resource for all the people of the state.

To those of you who graduate this year and move on to your next chosen fields of endeavor, we express the sincere hope that your years with us have been meaningful and significant years of growth and that your education here will be of increasing value to you in the days ahead. We wish you the best of success in all your undertakings.

For those of you who will continue your education at the University, we hope that you will share with us in ever greater measure the sense of community and purpose within the University, which is based upon the conviction that our growth in the future must be not merely material, but above all, one devoted to the pursuit of excellence in all its forms as appropriate to a university.

As we work together in this spirit, we can find our best assurance that the University will grow as it should, in strength and determination to meet successfully the manifold responsibilities of our challenging future.

W.R.A. Awards

All living groups are represented in this association. Participating in baseball, volleyball, badminton, basketball and bowling earns each woman individual points for herself and perhaps a first place trophy for her living group. These awards are presented annually at the WRA Dessert Hour.

Up and over during the volleyball tournament . . . which the Independents won.

Strike or gutter? Bowling every week for these "athletes."

Honorary "WRA" members sing for their dessert.

"Bean Feed" speaker Charles Springer, a local attorney and loyal alum.

Bob Shoemaker of ATO received the Buzzy Marks trophy for being the most outstanding intramural athlete in sportsmanship.

Kinnear Trophy Race

This coveted trophy represents intramural, athletic supremacy, and unity of a living group. Softball, volleyball, baseball, bowling, skiing, and track are the events in which each group must participate. Annually, each fall, the trophy is awarded at the "bean feed" to the men whose group accumulated the most points . . . then back to the race for next year!

The Gateway Singers

November

Homecoming 1960

The 1960 Homecoming festivities opened with the Gateway Singers entertaining a large crowd at the Homecoming Assembly.

Winning Skits

The men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the best men's skit with their new "Monroe Doctrine."

Gamma Phi Beta entertained everyone with its version of "Campaigning in the Comstock."

The beautiful harmony of the Debs pleased the audience during the second act.

The Frolic Dancers opened the second act with "Come Dance with Me, Charlie."

The Tri Deltas showed their South American dancing skill in their skit, "Saludos Amigos."

Jim Durham and Bill Schilling sang folk ballads to the tune of two guitars.

The Alpha Tau Omegas portrayed a Russian-dictated Homecoming.

The Kappa Alpha Thetas portrayed Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn in their version of "Wonderful Day."

The Lambda Chi Alphas presented a fairy-tale—"Our College Cinderella—The Morning After the Night Before."

"Please Marshall Wulk, Ya Gotta Go to the Show" was the western theme of the Sigma Nu skit.

Artemisia—Manzanita told the audience that "Co-Education is the Thing."

The whole cast joined in the finale!

The Sundowners presented "A Fairytale."

Sid Toleno clowns on the trampoline.

Judges' Choice

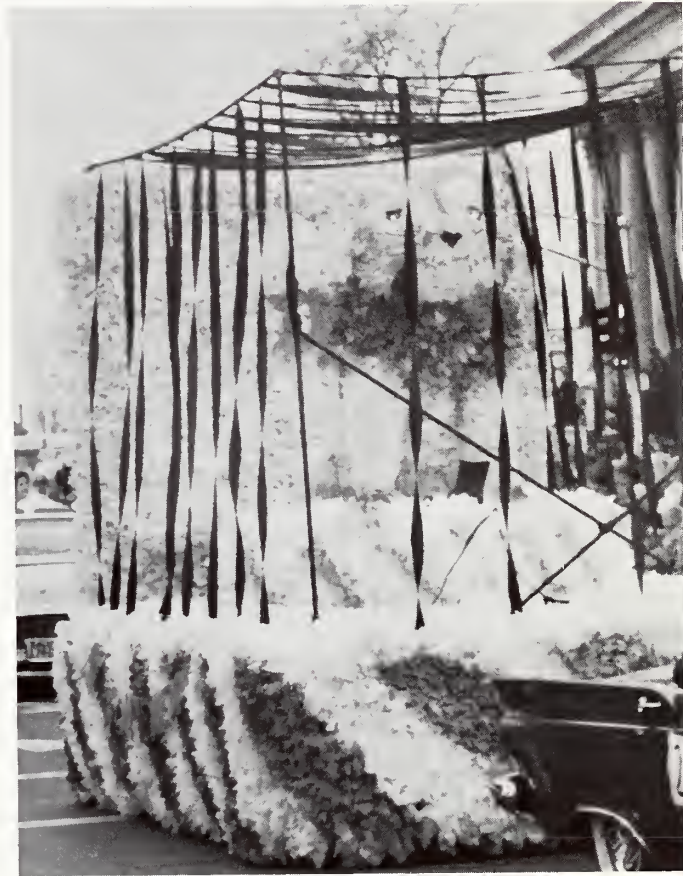

Kappa Alpha Theta took first place in sorority competition with their "It's In the Bag."

Taking the trophy in fraternity competition was Sigma Nu with their "Stomp the Hornets."

SAE is ready to "Blast the Hornets."

Phi Sigma Kappa's theme was "Eat 'em Alive!"

ATO tells us "There's a Sucker Born Every Minute."

Gamma Phi Beta's advice was "Whip the Hornets."

Pi Beta Phi says "Sac's a Pushover."

It just wouldn't be a parade without the Sundowners.

Artemisia-Manzanita says, "Hot Dog, The Alumni Are Home."

Theta Chi's advice was
"Go Ape Nevada."

Sigma Phi Epsilon says,
"Bounce the Hornets."

Delta Delta Delta's advice was "Top the Hornets."

Lambda Chi Alpha says, "Pipe Down the Hornets."

Oh, look, they're going to take our picture!

The men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon have very loyal and enthusiastic friends in SAE's official auxiliary, the Little Sisters of Minerva. Little Sisters do everything from making baseball uniforms to helping with rush. They are also official hostesses for Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Competition in various debates and speaking contests brought many awards and honors to the U. of N. debate squad. Some of their outstanding achievements were:

Second place in the Individual Debating by Al Pagni and John Heward at the C.O.P. Invitational. At this same meet, the debaters beat the Cal debaters.

First place by Stan Smart in the Extemporaneous speaking at the San Mateo meet. Also, in San Mateo, Pat Clary and Larry Struve took second place in the Individual Debating and the debate team tied that of Stanford.

Other tries throughout the year, to Oregon and California, brought more honors to these hard working debaters and speakers.

Dr. Arthur Broten
DEPARTMENT CHAIRMAN

Glenn (Jake) Lawlor
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

HEAD COACH . . . Mr. Richard Trachock

Mr. Trachock is in his second year commanding the University Wolf Pack as an experienced leader. After graduating from the University of Nevada, Mr. Trachock abandoned his post as a main halfback for the outstanding Wolf Pack teams of the late forties and took up the responsibility of guiding the Reno High School Huskies for ten years until he became the head coach for the "U of N" last year.

END COACH . . . Mr. Richard Dankworth

Mr. Dankworth is now working in his fifth year on the coaching staff. Because of his outstanding work, he is a valuable member in the coaching lineup.

LINE COACH . . . Mr. Floyd Edsall

Making a brilliant success of the line members is hard working Line Coach Floyd Edsall who is now in his second year on the "U of N" Grid-iron staff. After working at Elko and Sparks High schools and one year at the University, Mr. Edsall should really help mold a top team.

Jim Cawiezell executes a perfect handoff to Don Hunt as David Haines, Chris Nenzel, and Jerry McKinzie fan out to block any opposing tacklers. This is an example of the excellent playing the wolfpack displayed during the Homecoming game against Sacramento.

First Row: (l to r) B. Buffaloe, D. Hunt, T. Wheeler, M. Carpenter, Coach Edsall, Coach Trachock, Coach Dankworth, J. Tobin, J. Dolan, J. Winchell, J. Echave. Second Row: G. Hook, M. Culp, D. Haines, R. Cook, J. VreNon, J. Carter, L. Moss, J. Bronson, J. Prida, C. Nenzel, B. Byrnes. Row Three: G. Crutchley, J. Cawiezell, J. Johnson, F. Nenzel, J. Polaha, R. Miles, G. Germain, M. Flock, B. Riolo, B. Zuliani, B. Alfred. Fourth Row: W. Daniel, E. Pitchford, J. McKinzie, M. Welsh, P. Palzis, J. Genasci, D. Herrmann, J. Ennis, J. Perozi, J. Whitaker, R. Ripley.

The 1960 football season came to an end with a record of three wins, six defeats and a tie for third place in the Far Western Conference. Fluctuation in power is inevitable . . . Nevada has displayed power! Outward defeat has never made a dent in the hard inward determination of those representing her.

J.V. Coach Mr. Bill Ireland is a new man on the faculty roster. Besides doing an excellent job of coaching the J.V. Team, he instructs Bowling, Golf, and Tennis physical education classes.

J.V. COACH . . . Bill Ireland

Neither rain, sleet, snow, nor the gloom of night can stay the Wolfpack from giving the spectators a real good show!

THE BIG ELEVEN

The University of Nevada's Junior Varsity football team, the first on campus in over ten years, finished their spectacular season undefeated. The Wolf Pack "Pups," under Coach Bill Ireland, struck down the previously undefeated Shasta College with a 90 yard pass in the closing seconds of the game. The Reno rookies also handed the Mustang Colts their only defeat of the season at Davis, California. In all, this has been a big year for the J.V.'s. Congratulations, Wolf Pack Pups, for a job well done!

Jack Spencer, in his second year as Head Coach, guided a tall Nevada team through a highly successful season of thirteen wins and seven losses. The Wolf Pack defeated Sacramento State 58-49, to clinch the championship of the Far Western Conference with a record of nine victories in ten games. As Far Western Conference champs, Nevada earned a berth in the N.C.A.A. small college regional tournament at Santa Barbara, California.

Sportsmen from all over the world enjoy the superb facilities offered by Newt Crumley's Holiday Hotel, the Sports Center of the West.

There's wonderful pheasant shooting from September to April on the Holiday's private, 1,000-acre preserve . . . the Holiday's unique sports desk will arrange hunting and fishing anywhere in the world . . . the Holiday sponsors the annual star-studded Mug Hunt, Reno's major golf tourney . . .

and there's a direct sports wire and a huge scoreboard in the Sports Arena, where you can always find the latest scores and sports information.

IN THE GARDEN OF "EATIN"

If it's fresher than Sewell's, it's still growing. If you can find produce anywhere in town that's fresher than Sewell's, then it hasn't been picked yet. Sewell's produce experts pick the best on the market—handle it with cool and loving hands, and display it in the produce department like a lovely garden. There it's fresh goodness invites you to make it part of an exciting experience in good eating.

From cart to car your purchases are smoothly handled by the courteous Blue Ribbon Boys at Sewell's. Each counter and price at Sewell's is clearly marked in easy to read type. Fast, accurate checkers remove your purchases from the cart and careful sackers assemble your grocery items so the moist vegetables do not end up in the bottom to make the bags soggy and wet—breaking open when you take a few steps.

You'll find satisfaction in making Sewell's your grocery store—satisfaction in quality merchandise at prices as LOW—if not lower than other so-called advertised specials. You'll be pleased at the broad selection of nationally known foods. Most of all—you'll find satisfaction in Sewell's "Serving up that Western Hospitality." Remember, Sewell's keep overhead down and savings up because Sewell's have—
